

America's best interests at heart" representative (name) does not have family, and local newspaper that (if not) I will be telling my friends, opposing/supporting X? statement (name) release a public Will Senator/Congressman (name) release a public brief explanation of the Recently X occurred. (Give a (place). and I am a constituent from "Hello, my name is (name)

Here is a sample script you can adapt to most issues: involved in other efforts! coordinate calls and get indivisible Lincoln to join a group such as Follow up on social media, tag them. Was the response acceptable? It's more effective to talk about only one issue per call Ask them to release a public statement supporting or opposing an issue Call your members of Congress

If they think their constituency is angry at them, they are scared. They do not want to support legislation that angers their constituency. It is our job to make them feel less secure. They want to keep their power and feel secure in their position reelection. of Congress care about is important thing members The number one most

California Senators Dianne Feinstein San Francisco office: 415-393-0707 DC office: 202-224-3841 Kamala Harris Sacramento office: 916-448-2787 DC office: 202-224-3553 House of Representatives 3rd District John Garamendi Davis office: 530-753-5301 Fairfield office: 707-438-1822 Yuba City office: 530-329-8865 DC office: 202-225-1880

STAND INDIVISIBLE AGAINST FAR-RIGHT LEGISLATION "The salvation of the state is watchfulness of the citizen" indivisibleYOLO@gmail.com https://www.facebook.com/groups/indivisibleYOLO/ Twitter: @indivisibleYOLO Tactics taken from www.indivisibleguide.com

It's easy to look at American politics and feel disaffected and disenfranchised. You see all the bad things happening in the news and you wish someone would do something to stop it. Together, we can do our part to fight for what we believe in.

The people with the most direct power to enact change are members of Congress. However, there are members of Congress who are supposed to represent you. You can take concrete and specific actions to make your voice heard. We can do this

Read this!!!

- Before you print large quantities, print a test sheet. Different versions of powerpoint will do the margins differently.
- I convert mine to a pdf and print “fit to page”

